TO : Luis Auto Body Repair

FROM : Super German Auto Parts

SUBJECT : Shipment dated 9/4/00

Here is the shipment you requested. The X-48 brake pads and the fuel pumps were easy to get, but the Juan 45 presented a minor problem. The Juan factory is going bankrupt and is currently looking for someone to buy them out. You may have to find another dealer. May I recommend the Andrew 66? They have the same response time and wear evenly. They are a little more expensive, though. Make sure you check the shipment according to the invoice and sign at the bottom to verify your receipt of the shipment. Please mail the yellow copy of the invoice back to me, and keep the white one for your own records.

1. Why does the writer suggest that Luis consider switching to the Andrew 66?
 - (A) They're more cost-effective.
 - (B) The Juan break down too easily.
 - (C) The Andrew 66 have a quicker response time.
 - (D) The Juan factory is in financial trouble.

2. What should be done with the signed invoice?
 - (A) Luis should keep the pink copy.
 - (B) The white copy should be filed in Luis records.
 - (C) The yellow copy should be sent to the Juan factory.
 - (D) Both copies should be thrown away.

3. What did NOT accompany this memo?
 - (A) Juan 45.
 - (B) Brake pads.
 - (C) An invoice.
 - (D) Fuel pumps.
